

A year ago we were ready to present a vision....this November 17 marks the one year anniversary of that special occasion...Sound is a Wave...it took 11 singers, production crew and volunteers to put this vision under the lights at the Metro Studio Theatre....

Reflections are many and memories are rich in moments captured during the amazing process of ...having a vision, sharing it and being supported to create it and mount it. Enjoy the pics that Holly captured....

Sound is a Wave...its a pattern, a pattern of disturbance...it fills the space, disturbs your stillness...Sound is a Wave. Washes over.

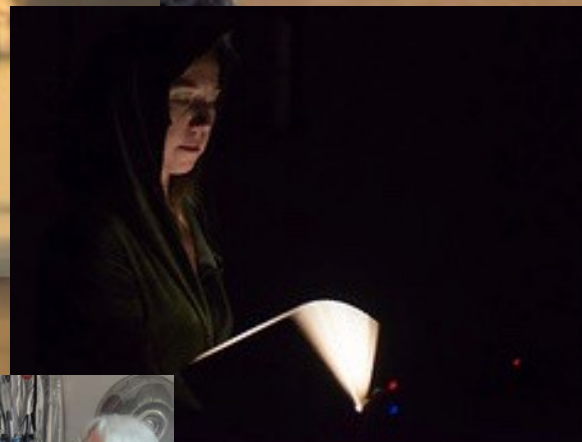

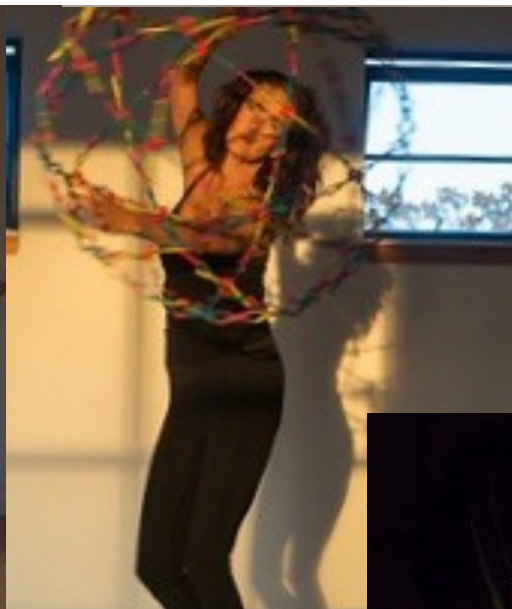

Sound is a Wave was a showcase of the creative voice work that we do and it was an opportunity for me to present 3 of my artistic works.

Thru collaboration, experimentation and good humour we created 9 pieces of original music. Some stood alone, some enhanced by visuals, poetry, dance and bass.... A rich and rewarding experience for us all.....

The magic of composing music to

- . the backdrop of music from the spheres,
- . to the poetry that connected and gave voice to the 'Fireflies" that dance at nite.
- . And composing music based only on translation of the pronouns " I, You and Us' and for the translations of the word' Water'.

The videos for WATER and ΤΟΙ/ΜΟΙ have been entered in a media exhibit...still awaiting reply.Thanks xxx Anna Malkin (Dovetail mediaworks.com) Justine Love (Limbic Media) Working with you has made my world more exciting with possibilities!
